Hi Friend,

I know Oregonians are facing serious challenges and unneeded uncertainty regarding the administration's immigration policies. While I'm working in Congress to ensure our communities are protected, I want to share this resources guide created by my office. This guide can help you to make a plan with your family and friends. These steps can include seeking legal advice, knowing your rights or connecting with our incredible organization in Oregon and nationwide working every day to stop misinformation and assist our immigrant communities. I hope this information will help you and your loved ones. As the proud son of refugees who fled Nazi Germany for safety in America, I am committed to preserving our country as a lifeline for immigrants. And as a senator proud to represent all of Oregon, I assure you, I'll keep fighting tooth and nail for the rights, dignity and needs of all Oregonians.

Sincerely,

Ron Wyden

Salem, OR—In response to the evolving landscape at the federal level, the Oregon Department of Justice is committed to ensuring its online Sanctuary Toolkit remains an up-to-date resource. Recognizing the shifting directives on immigration policy and enforcement from the federal administration, the Oregon Department of Justice wants to ensure communities are well-informed and have the latest guidance.

“Oregon has always been a state that values inclusivity and fairness,” said Attorney General Dan Rayfield. “With the chaos and confusion from the Trump administration in these first few weeks, it is crucial we adapt our resources to reflect any changes in policy, with the fire hose of executive orders unleashed from the White House.”

The Oregon Department of Justice has updated many of the resources in the toolkit, focused on specific communities, sensitive areas, and those on the frontlines. That includes pages with guidance and information for public schools, hospitals and healthcare settings, and law enforcement.

In addition to the online toolkit, the Oregon Department of Justice’s Civil Rights Unit has held dozens of community trainings, with more than 100 trainings scheduled in the coming months. We also have numbers for our hotline and the Portland Immigrant Rights Coalition and links to our English and Spanish direct access websites at SanctuaryPromise.oregon.gov and PromesaSantuario.oregon.gov.
